

10 Things You Can Do To Stop Human Trafficking

1

Support human trafficking survivors and STAC's work at Surviveandthriveadvocacy.org/donate-now.

2

Help keep children and teens safe from traffickers. Download Youth and Caregivers Toolkit and share online: surviveandthriveadvocacy.org/youth-caregiver/

3

Learn the red flags of human trafficking by attending a special training event. Register at Surviveandthriveadvocacy.org/events.

4

Learn how to protect your workplace and business from human trafficking. Register now at STACPRO.org!

5

Know and share the National Human Trafficking Hotline: 1-888-3737-888. Text "Help" or "Info" to 233733. Visit Humantraffickinghotline.org.

6

Support local businesses that are free of human trafficking and demand fair trade and trafficking-free goods. For more information, visit Slaveryfootprint.org.

7

Volunteer with STAC and share information about human trafficking in your community. Sign up at Surviveandthriveadvocacy.org/training-education-resources.

8

Stay informed by joining STAC's email list at Surviveandthriveadvocacy.org/sign-up.

9

Join the Big Bend Coalition Against Human Trafficking (BBCAHT) at Facebook.com/bbcaht. Contact Kellianne.Dougherty@usdoj.gov for more information.

10

Help raise awareness and stay informed by following us on social media (@SurviveandThriveAdvocacyCenter). You can also add information about STAC to your website.